Brief Report Key Insights from Feedback:

Awareness of College Vision and Objectives: A high percentage (94.7%) of respondents are aware of the college's vision and objectives. However, 5.3% are not, highlighting the need for continued and improved communication efforts.

Clarity of Syllabus Aims and Objectives: All respondents (100%) agree that the syllabus aims and objectives are clear, indicating satisfaction with current practices.

Curriculum Set by Affiliating University: Feedback shows 57.9% rate it as good, 31.6% as very good, and 10.5% as average. This positive feedback will be shared with the university, alongside discussions on potential improvements based on the average ratings.

Adequacy of Syllabus Content: With 68.4% rating it as moderate and 31.6% to a great extent, there is a need to review and enhance the syllabus content to meet higher standards.

Time and Credit Allocation: Rated as moderate by 68.4%, to a great extent by 26.3%, and somewhat by 5.3%, suggesting a reevaluation and possible adjustment of time and credit allocations in the syllabus.

Flexibility in the Curriculum: Rated as moderate by 57.9%, to a great extent by 31.6%, and somewhat by 10.5%, indicating a need to explore options for increasing curriculum flexibility.

Internal Evaluation System: Received very good ratings from 52.6%, excellent from 21.1%, good from 21.1%, and average from 5.3%. The strong aspects will be maintained, and any concerns from the average rating will be addressed.

Library Facilities: Strongly agreed upon by 47.4% and agreed by another 47.4%, with 5.3% neutral. The college will continue providing robust facilities and address any neutral feedback concerns.

Student Discipline and Respect for Staff: With 84.2% strongly agreeing and 15.8% agreeing, current discipline policies will be maintained to foster a respectful environment.

Additional Courses and Information: Strongly agreed upon by 68.4% and agreed by 31.6%, showing the importance of continuing to offer additional courses and information to students.

College Environment for Teaching and Learning: Found conducive by 94.7% strongly agreeing and 5.3% agreeing, the positive environment will be maintained and supported to ensure it remains conducive to teaching and learning.

Conclusion:

It is noticed that more than 90% responses received from the teachers. Their feedback highlights strong awareness of the college's vision and satisfaction with syllabus clarity. Positive ratings for the curriculum and internal evaluation system show overall approval. However, improvements are needed in syllabus content adequacy, time and credit allocation, and curriculum flexibility. Robust library facilities and positive student discipline will be maintained, while the conducive learning environment is supported.
